

NMP NO MY PRESIDENT

■ NO ■ MY ■ PRESIDENT

Synthesized Alternative Rock.

Your soundtrack when everything and everyone is fucking with you.
Times are good? Turn it up!

Honest Rock'n'Roll in the 2020ies? NOT MY PRESIDENT puts down the archetypical guitar. It's masculine without machismo, synthetic without plastic, moving along with the zeitgeist and working against it. Looking for authenticity? Found it.

Dark Wave, aggressive 90s Rock, Garage between rock-pop hybrids and film music influences together with 100% honest attitude characterizes NMP. A sweaty, dancy rock show.

The politically ambitious forerunner project MAL HOMBRE is also part of the mix with challenging themes and award-winning Tarantino-esque music videos.

We are not a political band, but we are pissed off as long as the planet along with its inhabitants gets driven into the ground while a handful of fancy suits is getting richer by the minute. Turn off flight mode and you'll be buried in BS. Frustration helps just as little as the same old heartache clichés and social media individualists. But noise does.

*"White man he think he got control
- you gonna dig that hole"*
