Blue & Smallz is a dj & producer team from Cologne, influenced by all kinds of electronic music, mainly based in Deep/Tech House, Progressive House and Melodic Techno. They have been formerly known as CarolinaBlue & MisterSmallz.

Since 2018 they are Ibiza Live Radio branded djs and represent the station on their international events and host the „Leerlauf“ radio show twice a month

Knowing each other for more than 20 years, both shared the love for music since their early childhood, however it took many years for them to find their way into making music professionally. Since 2014 the duo started to make an impact on Cologne's electronic music scene, playing stunning sets, that take you on a journey through different kinds of styles, always hitting the right mood. This diversity and musicality exhibits in their own productions, where they combine all their influences and create their own sound.
