Rubik 1138 is a progressive instrumental rock band formed in 2008. Originally from Metepec, México, Rubik 1138 takes its name from the Rubik cube, but with the inverse goal: instead of making six plain color faces (in this case, music), the idea is to combine the colors in every face infinitely. The number 1138 comes from the George Lucas' film THX1138. The music travels from classic rock, to jazz, nourished with glances of funk, metal, soul, surf and electronic music. The band's live shows are accompanied by real time video projection and lightning.

The band members impersonate as surreal characters by wearing a mask, giving more space to the audiovisual theme of the shows.

Band Line Up:
Guitar: MOPHO & DUDDITS
Bass: YEHOUDI
Drums: DIDI

"Rubik 1138 have created nothing short of what can be described as a demented masterpiece"
Phil Davies - PowerPlay Magazine U.K

"...Rubik 1138, a high-octane riff machine from Mexico of all places, who've come to kick your arse."
Alan Jones - Get Ready to ROCK! U.K
