BANDINFO:

"This entire generation seems to have become pussies you know?" Mocked Lemmy Kilmister today's generation. The four men of the rock'n'roll band HEADCASH certainly do not fit into this grid. The band name with a reference to Motörhead and Johnny Cash already reveals a lot about their music.

HEADCASH plays wild and rampant rock'n'roll with influences from country, punk rock and blues. In the East Saxon music scene, the musicians have been on the road for several years and got to know each other through their former bands. With HEADCASH, they have been launching a campaign since the end of 2015, in order to stir up the softened German music scene. Their rousing concerts bring even the biggest movement muffle to the dance. You can tell the four rockers the fun on the stage, which is easily transmitted to the audience. In spring 2017 her debut album will be released.
