PRESS INFORMATION:

BROKEN EGO are back! After their debut “Love & Decay In 16 Bit” [EP] (Edelbrand Records, 2011) the formerly Industrial Band sheds their Gothic-Image and shines latterly in a Glitter-Pop outfit. The dynamic liveband around founding member Chris Ego presents their new album: „Avenue To Wonderland“ (Echozone, 2018) is the designated name and has been released on 9th November 2018.

Taking the early 1990ies-Electropop, Viennese artist Chris Ego combines vivid soundscapes with moony textures built on rock guitars and synthesizers. That depicts the sound of the eagerly awaited longplayer „Avenue To Wonderland“, which has been critically acclaimed prior its release. The mesmerizing album bribes with catchy melodies, danceable rhythms and sing-along choruses. That being said BROKEN EGO is becoming anew and positions boldly in the neon-colored spotlight of Electronic Pop/Rock.

On the one hand the obvious image makeover moves the band towards the current hype of Retro Wave. On the other hand the content resembles in a buoyant sentiment. Lyrically speaking this time it is all about finding a new love and enjoying life to the full. The first single „Get Away“ depicts in an exemplary way putting out of sorts and takes the audience on a journey to the anticipated „Wonderland“ – that particular place where no secret fantasies must be hidden.
