

Tom Shadow

It's music- however you call it

Country or Blues

The Oldenburg musician Thomas Oberschelp aka Tom Shadow convinces with a catchy style of country, blues & folk.

The focus of the performances are his own songs Tom has written during his traveling all over the world. Tom Shadow is simply authentic. Paired with wit and charm, Tom Shadow tells music stories that the listener feels as real, unsophisticated, undefeated and being perceived without any artificiality. Direct from life.

The songs are about heartbreak and wanderlust. They also grab on social topics and others that have a timeless relevance.

Tom says: "It's important to me that content and music match and do not lose their authenticity".

Flexibility is the magic word, whether a living room

Concert as Solo Artist, a venue at a campfire, A country club or a festival with the Tom Shadow Band

the Blues Cowboys. Everything is possible with Tom Shadow.

When is a concert actually a good concert?

Quite simple: when the audience has the impression that the musician is rather on stage than anywhere else.

This is "Tom Shadow".
