Bio:

'What We Are' arose late 2011 out of the ashes of previously failed band projects in which Corinna, Matthias and Mike had played together. Although consisting of the same core team, they knew from the beginning that this project would be entirely different from anything they had done before. Finally they were able to create a fusion of all their favorite styles to form a sound that was unique.

After 9 months of writing, the band went into the studio to record their debut album 'Thanks for the Memory', consisting of 10 tracks.

Info:

"You're making your life real, with every move you feel
A rush, a beat, a song that's screaming out inside your head
It won't be easy, that's all I promise you
It won't be gentle, but that's not what roads are for your crazy dream is all you need." - "Thanks For The Memory - The Roads We Choose" (2012) What We Are Representing a generation - Bitburg, Germany-based Progressive/Alternative Rock band "What We Are" inevitably does so. The songs off their debut album "Thanks For The Memory" allow glimpses at a world envisioned by those on the verge of adult life - embracing past and future experiences, songs shrouded in melancholic optimism. Their style combines elements of various musical influences, creating a symbiose of innovative, classic hard rock riffs paired with atmospheric synths, diverse vocal structures and modern dubstep and hardcore quirks.
