

BIO

Edge of Ever is a Greek/German Metal band formed in December 2012 in Berlin, Germany by frontman Minas Marston and bassist James Smith. The band consists of six members of different age, nationality and musical influences. The music of Edge of Ever is hard to define as a specific genre. It can be described as a modern mixture of old-school Heavy Metal and Progressive Metal with Core influences or as referred to by RockHard magazine: „High Energy Prog“. The band released their debut-album „Global Ignition“ in October 2014 and has received outstanding reviews from various Rock/Metal German magazines, including giants in the genre like Metal Hammer, RockHard and Legacy.
