

Last Connection is a Melodic Metalcore band from the small town Coburg (Germany). The band was founded by Takis Fack (Guitar) and Michael Wolf (Guitar) in 2011. The idea is to create a mix of diverse melodic elements combined with aggressive metalcore parts. A varied voice and melodic guitar solos round it off. Beside that the band's also using acoustic instrumental parts in some of their songs.

Michael and Takis had known each other since childhood age and decided to search for band members in 2011. The perfect drummer, Patric Gürtler, answered an ad and became immediately a fixed member, because of his personal attitude and his style of playing drums. The first riffs were already created in this occupation. Until 2014 the band had frequent changes with their bass player and singer. In some periods the band had no singer and bass player but developed a lot of individual riffs in that time.

In 2014 the band took a big step forward. The singer was found who suited the music perfectly. Michael Wittmann convinced with his flexible voice and wrote all the lyrics during the songwriting process. His vocal development in this period and the dedication of all band members made it possible to develop the first CD relatively quickly, which was produced by their drummer Patric. At the end of 2014 the search for a bass player came to an end – Dima Petri joined the band and became the new bass player.

End of 2014 the band will release their first Demo CD "First Blood". In 2015 the first tour will start. Rough vocals, brutal riffs and a professional live show are waiting for you.
