

Access To Your Heart

You make me feel like drowning in your eyes
Enchant or curse me, I can't tell
I need to explore what is behind
But you just keep me locked outside

I have found the love in you
Have found the passion and the warmth
Have found I long for you
But I haven't found the access to your heart
No, I haven't found the access to your heart

As the plane is taking off
I cannot help but think of you
If I crashed down tonight you wouldn't know
Who you actually are to me
If you were here I'm sure I'd find the key
But you stay far away with all your illusions

And up- through the shift of clouds
Here's still some light
And up- away from the ground
Let's lose control for a while
Fly away...

Thank You

...Florian Seeber, for sparing no effort to record and engineer this album with me and advising me in a very supportive way.

...Kay, for believing in my musical ability, re-encouraging and being there for me even though you're 500 miles away.

...Jule, THANK YOU - for everything

...Nadine, for being who you are and your support - you're wonderful.

...the two people who inspired me in such a characteristic way.

Amy Jazz Antigravity Love Song

Mutually Lost

As I keep thinking of you
I feel like dreaming
And I can take off the mask
To see who you really are

Get me down from the cloud
Where I didn't get the point
Seems my behavior was so foolish
I still long for your touch

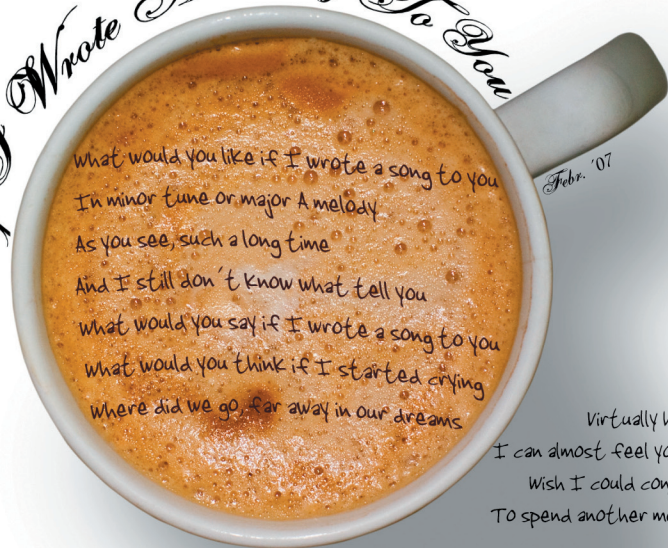

Seems like we're mutually lost
Crossing routes but no face to face
I'd give anything for you
To stop us being mutually lost

We need to find a way
I miss you right here, this moment
Nothing could rid me of you
So how do you feel right now?

I love the moments you let me see
What is behind your disguise
And your spirit encloses me
I feel I long for more

If I Wrote A Song To You

What would you like if I wrote a song to you
In minor tune or major A melody
As you see, such a long time
And I still don't know what tell you
What would you say if I wrote a song to you
What would you think if I started crying
Where did we go, far away in our dreams

Virtually here
I can almost feel your warm touch
Wish I could conjure you up
To spend another moment with you

Tomorrow and a day I will be gone
My inbox still filled with all your mails
One-way street, no way back
A hundred miles per hour and no stop

Virtually Here

Aug. '07

Virtually you are here
Have you ever been away
You're the spirit to wake me up
You're the one who's never by my side

You're not here - Yes, you are
You're not here - Yes, you are
You're not here - And you've never been

All I hear is my deafening breath
Echoing in silence
I've lost my motivation to sing
But I need to tell you this
Dropping things makes no sense without you
Waiting in the cold is needless
Buried beneath everything I've lost
Don't feel the need to be free
Free

The Echoes

I was captivated and tempted by your affection
But you couldn't cherish that, no you couldn't
So I say that it's you're fault
'cause you're the one who is mistaken

And I am happy now as I see
I just imagined you would be somebody-
No, you're not
You haven't proven worth anyone

Yeah, I was blind
But there are things far worse than blindness
You didn't even notice how you hurt me
So I'm not sorry anymore
Know I can go further beyond
And when your voice rings in my ear
I simply spoil those words

My despair wonders who I am
My ratio cannot tell the answer
But I am glad to take it on me
To be responsible
