Short text:

Stephan Graf's Double Vision - sweaty & with lots of fun: the term "power trio" hits the bull's-eye here! The Blues-Rock Trio from Germany inspires with unforgettable live performances and meanwhile already seven produced albums all over Germany and many parts of Europe! With their own "Blues'n'Roll" as well as songs by Rory Gallagher, Freddie King or Muddy Waters the talented and likeable guys rock every stage. After Stephan Graf also toured Europe with "Gerry McAvoy's Band Of Friends" in 2020, the new studio album "Pure'n'simple" and many sweaty club and festival shows are no less exciting. The performances of "Stephan Graf's Double Vision" are a tour de force of musical talent and have a groove that carries away even the listeners in the back rows.

detailed text:

The German Blues-Rock Trio inspires with unforgettable live performances and meanwhile already seven produced albums all over Germany and many parts of Europe! With their "Blues'n'Roll" the talented and likeable guys rock every stage.

The band's own songs and the self-created "Blues'n Roll" style are the focus of the show. Here and there the one or other Rory Gallagher song may not be missing in the program.

The music and life's work of Rory Gallagher are, so to speak, the godfather for Stephan Graf's Double Vision's own music. She is inspired by it and you can feel and hear this in every note and every live concert of the band.

At the 40th. Fehmarn Open Air Festival 2010 the trio around singer and guitarist Stephan Graf convinced with an unbelievable live performance that is second to none. In addition, shows together with Johnny Winter, Ten Years After, Eammon McCormack, Randy Hansen, Dana Fuchs or the Hamburg Blues Band can be found in the vita.

The trio is not a one-man show, however. Besides the omnipresent guitarist and singer Stephan Graf, bassist Sebastian Drexler and drummer Robert Chudasch and/or Lin Dittmann are not just decorative accessories.

Stephan Graf, that's the voice of "Double Vision" and a master of his instrument, better said, of his instruments. They are flying changes between the Fender Stratocaster, the mandolin, the acoustic guitar and the Fender Telecaster.

In 2020, Stephan Graf also toured throughout Europe with Gerry McAvoy's Band Of Friends. McAvoy was the bass player alongside Rory Gallagher for 20 years. The fact that Stephan Graf takes over the vocals as well as the guitar in the Band of Friends reflects recognition by the "highest authority".

The performances of Stephan Graf's Double Vision are a tour de force of musical talent and have a groove that carries away even the listeners in the back rows - sweaty & with a lot of fun: the term "power trio" hits the bull's-eye here!
