

REVO

Alt. Rock / Prog. Metal Berlin

Revo was born two years ago out of an unexpectedly successful experiment of a combination of different musical elements. Revo's sound is powerful yet melodic, each song being a fusion of styles that never fails to engage their audience. The group is recognized for their use of crying guitars and dramatic, distorted vocals, which when paired with the grooviness of the drum and bass duo, creates an irresistible sound. The group is highly influenced by powerhouses such as Pantera, Opeth, Rage Against The Machine, and Porcupine Tree. Revo have performed at Berlin venues including Toast Hawaii, Maschinenhaus, Musik & Frieden, Badehaus, and Marie Antoinette.

'An amalgam of psyche rock, hints of a grunge sway, with prog rock affections around the edges and Leo Barbato's vocal performance bathed in punk tones.'
