

KAT KOAN

"A statement of indie rock prowess"
Mundane Magazine

"Sly, sklinky, sexily salacious"
Indie Berlin

"Powerful messages in a dizzy explosion of sounds"
KALTBLUT MAGAZIN

KAT KOAN is a musical chameleon, mixing electroclash with Rock and continuously adding surprising elements to her live shows. She expresses outspoken zeitgeisty messages and intense emotions wrapped in - and elevated by - a badass sound. Her debut album LUSTPRINZIP was mixed by Dean Hurley, who is best known for his work as David Lynch's Sound Supervisor. Her follow up album COCOON, which was only released on vinyl, was picked as the top 10 albums of 2022 by various Indie Music Blogs. Together with her band she sets out to entertain full throttle, on a musical and visual level, bringing an enticing combination of power, feline sensuality and a bucketload of attitude.
