

SOME PEDESTRIANS

BLACKBIRD OUT ON I FOR US RECORDS

In November 2007 Some Pedestrians released their first CD. A 10-track album called "These Were Our Dreams" was the beginning of it all.

On 02/02/2010 they added another one to their discography list.

A 7-track post hardcore opus called "Blackbird" released by I For Us Records (Daggers, Meleeh, Endzweck, ...) was released upon the masses.

In this short period of time "Blackbird" has already received numerous of positive reviews and is frequently aired many differend (internet) radio stations

*"..where other so called postcore-bands stick to one riff, Some Pedestrians is more rough than that, they move earth and sky to keep the stuff alive. Disturbance and uproar and sometimes chaotic, but always intense.." -Blackfuel.nl-

*"..Instrumentally, this album has an excellent array of hardcore and insane mathcore riffs, which give this album a unique sound that every band is looking for.." -Corezine.net-

*"..Blackbird is a great album with seven disfigured, yet very well played tracks.." -FrenchMetal.com-

*"..their work shows to be sometimes melancholic and laid back and other times powerfull and smack-in-the-face, without ever overdoing it.." -Metalorgie.com-

*"..The band offers lots of variations; you won't get bored easily... Very promising stuff.." -Interpunk.com-
